ARTICLE 10 INDEMNIFICATION

The Association shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or contemplated action, lawsuit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative, by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a Director, employee, Officer, or agent of the Association, against expenses (including attorneys' fees and appellate attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by that person in connection with such action, lawsuit, or proceeding unless (a) a court of competent jurisdiction determines, after all available appeals have been exhausted or not pursued by the proposed indemnitee, that he or she did not act in good faith or in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be not in, or opposed to, the best interest of the Association, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, that he or she had reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful, and (b) such court further specifically determines that indemnification should be denied. The termination of any action, lawsuit, or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction or upon plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith or did act in a manner that he or she reasonably believed to be not in, or opposed to, the best interest of the Association, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, that he or she had reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful.

herein shall apply only if the Board of Directors approves such settlement and reimbursement as being for the best interest of the Association.

The indemnification provided by this Article shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of members, or otherwise, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a Director, Officer, employee, or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs and personal representatives of that person.

The Association shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a Director, Officer, employee, or agent of the Association, or is or was serving, at the request of the Association, as a Director, Officer, employee, or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against him or her and incurred by him or her in any such capacity, or arising out of his or her status as such, whether or not the Association would have the power to indemnify him or her against such liability under the provisions of this Article.

ARTICLE 11 BYLAWS

The first Bylaws of the Association shall be adopted by the Board of Directors and may be altered, amended, or rescinded in the manner provided in the Bylaws and the Declaration.

ARTICLE 12 AMENDMENTS

Amendments to these Articles shall be proposed and adopted in the following manner:

An amendment or amendments to these Articles of Incorporation may be proposed and adopted by the Board of Directors or the Association acting upon a vote of the majority of the members, or by the members of the Association owning a majority of the Units in the Condominium at the time declared or added, whether meeting as members or by instrument in writing signed by them. Upon any amendment or amendments to these Articles of Incorporation being proposed by the Board or member, such proposed amendment shall be transmitted to the President of the Association or the acting Chief Executive Officer in the absence of the President, who shall thereupon call a special meeting of the membership for a date not sooner than twenty days or later than sixty days from the receipt by him or her of the proposed amendment, and it shall be the duty of the Secretary to provide each member written notice for such meeting stating the time and place of the meeting and reciting the proposed amendments in reasonable detailed form which notice shall be mailed or presented personally to each member not less than fourteen days nor more than thirty days before the date set for such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed properly given when deposited in the United States mail, addressed to the member at his or her post office address as it appears on the records of the Association with postage thereon prepaid. Any member may, by written waiver of notice signed by such member, waive such notice and such waiver when filed in the records of the Association whether before, during or after the holding of the meeting, shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice to such member. At such meeting the amendment proposed must be approved by an affirmative vote of the member owning not less than two-thirds of the Units in the Condominium in order for such amendment to become effective. Thereupon, such amendments of these Articles of Incorporation shall be transcribed and certified in such form as may be necessary to file the same in the office of Secretary of State of Florida. A certified copy of each such amendment shall be recorded in the Public Records of Pinellas County, Florida, within thirty days from the date on which the same is filed in the office of the Secretary of State. No Amendment is valid unless recorded with identification on the first page thereof of the book and page of the Public Records where the Declaration of such Condominium operated by the Association is recorded.

ARTICLE 13
TRANSFER OF CONTROL BY DEVELOPER

When Unit Owners other than the Developer own 15% or more of the Units in a Condominium to be operated by the Association, the Unit Owners other than the Developer shall be entitled to elect not less than one third of the members of the Board of Directors of the Association. Upon the election of such Director(s), the Developer shall forward to the Division the name and mailing address of the Director(s) elected. Unit Owners other than the Developer are entitled to elect not less than a majority of the members of the Board of Directors of an Association:

(a) Three years after 50% of the Units that will be operated ultimately by the Association have been conveyed to Purchasers;

(b) Three months after 90% of the Units that will be operated ultimately by the Association have been conveyed to Purchasers;

(c) When all of the Units that will be operated ultimately by the Association have been completed, some of them have been conveyed to purchasers, and none of the others are being offered for sale by the Developer in the ordinary course of business;

(d) When some of the Units have been conveyed to purchasers, and none of the others are being constructed or offered for sale by the Developer in the ordinary course of business,

(e) Seven years after recordation of the Declaration of Condominium in the public records; or in the case of an Association, which may ultimately operate more than one condominium, seven (7) years after recordation of the Declaration for the first Condominium it operates; or, in the case of an Association operating a phase Condominium created pursuant to s. 718.403, seven (7) years after recordation of the Declaration creating the initial phase, whichever occurs first. The Developer is entitled (but not obligated) to elect at least one (1) member of the Board as long as the Developer holds for sale in the ordinary course of business at least five percent (5%) of the Units, in Condominiums with fewer than 500 Units, and two percent (2%), in Condominiums with more than five hundred (500) Units, of the Units in a Condominium that will be operated by the Association. Following the time the Developer relinquishes control of the Association, the Developer may exercise the right to vote any Developer-owned Units in the same manner as any other Unit Owner except for purposes of reacquiring control of the Association or selecting the majority of members of the Board.

The Developer can turn over control of the Association to Unit Owners other than the Developer prior to such dates in its sole discretion by causing all of its appointed Directors to resign, whereupon it shall be the affirmative obligation of Unit Owners other than the Developer to elect Directors and assume control of the Association. Provided at least 30 days' notice of the Developer's decision to cause its appointees to resign is given to Unit Owners, neither the Developer nor its appointees shall be liable in any manner in connection with such resignations even if the Unit Owners other than the Developer refuse or fail to assume control.

Within 75 days after the Unit Owners other than the Developer are entitled to elect a member or members of the Board of an Association, or sooner if the Developer has elected to accelerate such event as aforesaid, the Association shall call, and give not less than 60 days notice of an election for the members of the Board of Directors. The election shall proceed as provided in s.718.112(2)(d). The notice may be given by any Unit Owner if the Association fails to do so. Upon election of the first Unit Owner other than the Developer to the Board of Directors, the Developer shall forward to the Division the name and mailing address of the Unit Owner Board member.

If a Developer holds Units for sale in the ordinary course of business, none of the following action may be taken without approval in writing by the Developer:

- (a) Assessment of the Developer as a Unit Owner for Capital Improvements.
- (b) Any action by the Association that would be detrimental to the sales of Units by the Developer. However an increase in assessments for common expenses without discrimination against the Developer shall not be deemed to be detrimental to the sales of Units.

At the time that Unit Owners other than the Developer elect a majority of the Members of the Board of Directors of the Association, the Developer shall relinquish control of the Association and the Unit Owners shall accept control. Simultaneously, or not more than 90 days thereafter, the Developer shall deliver to the Association, at the Developer's expense, all property of the Unit Owners and of the Association held or controlled by the Developer, including, but not limited to, the following items, if applicable:

All financial statements shall be prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting standards as defined by rule by the Florida Board of Accountancy, under F.S. Chapter 473. The accountant performing the audit shall examine to the extent necessary supporting documents and records, including the cash disbursements and related paid invoices to determine if expenditures were for association purposes, and billings, cash receipts, and related records to determine that the developer was charged and paid the proper amount of assessments.
- (h) Association funds or the control thereof.
- (i) All tangible personal property that is the property of the Association or is or was represented by the Developer to be part of the Common Elements or is ostensibly part of the Common Elements, and an inventory of such property.

(k) A list of the names and addresses, of which the Developer has knowledge at any time in the development of the Condominium, of all contractors, subcontractors, and suppliers utilized in the construction or remodeling of the improvements and in the landscaping of the Condominium or Association property.
